WORLD DAY OF PRAYER 2022 – March 4.

Due to Covid, it was necessary to re-think the traditional service as follows: World Day of Prayer Worship Service 2022 - service video (55 minutes) is available from the website (wicc.org). This service was written by the women of England, Wales and Northern Ireland. The video was prepared and adapted for us in Canada by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada. It can be watched at home or with others, keeping in mind all recent public health advice. The video can also be viewed on You Tube (search World Day of Prayer 2022 Virtual Service).

Zion will be gathering a few people together at the church at 2 pm to view the video. If you wish to attend at Zion, please call (306-653-2442) or email (zion.office@sasktel.net) the church office.

Donations can be simple this year. People are encouraged to donate to WDP through the website (wicc.org/donations). You can also mail a cheque directly to the WICC Office, 47 Queens Park Cres. E, Toronto, ON M5S 2C3. If you wish a tax receipt, please include your mailing or email address.

CHARITABLE RECEIPTS have been mailed. Contact Kaylyn with any questions you may have.

Scriptures:

2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Luke 9:28-36

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

Evangelical Lutheran Worship

Prayer of the Day: Holy God, mighty and immortal, you are beyond our knowing, yet we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. Transform us into the likeness of your Son, who renewed our humanity so that we may share in his divinity, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
