Zion's Ministry and Mission: Programs, Projects and Activities

Sunday Worship and post-service coffee hour, Sunday School, Confirmation Class, Choir, Handbells, Parish Life events, Tuesday Bible Study, Naomi Circle, Squiracle, Downtown Churches, Downtown Youth Group with St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Prayer Chain, In From the Cold, The Mitten Tree, and a variety of other, especially downtown Social Ministry and Outreach.

Our facilities also provide a home to a wide array of other groups and activities. Recent and current examples include:

- ELCIC and ecumenical services: the ordination and installation of Rev. Dr. Ali Tote, the new ELCIC bishop of Saskatchewan, seminary graduations, conventions, youth gatherings (e.g., CLAY) and activities.
- Support, music and sports groups: Wakati Wa Kafrica - supporting integration of recent African immigrants; Ukrainian language school; Al-Anon; Saskatoon Men's Chorus rehearsal and concerts; Lenten and Advent concerts - former Lutheran Seminary pipe organ, now rebuilt in the Heritage Hall; voice, piano and organ lessons; drama group rehearsals; Table Tennis Saskatchewan; downtown business basketball and other teams.
